Co-Requisite(s)

None.

Credit Hours

3 Credits

Course Format

Complete Online Course

Meeting Days, Times, and Locations

Fully online. No required in-class sessions.

Course Description

This online course focuses on the fundamentals of human development from birth to death. The course explores the variety of individual and developmental contexts that influence development, such as socioeconomic status, culture, genetics, family, school, and society. This course examines biosocial, cognitive, and psychosocial development across the life span. Open to nonmatriculated students. Permission required for RN to BS students. (Most have already had this course previously)

Student Learning Outcomes

At the conclusion of this course, the student will achieve the following identified outcomes.

1. Examine selected psychological, biological, and sociological bases of human development.
2. Analyze research and theory that pertain to understanding human development.
3. Interpret human development as a dynamic process that involves the interaction between the individual and the social environment across the life span.
4. Apply selected principles of human development to assessing the developmental needs of individuals at various stages of the life cycle.

Teaching Methods/Activities

This is an online class that uses multiple learning methods to meet diverse student learning needs. These methods include:

- Visual learning strategies using required textbook readings and lecture presentations in PowerPoint Format.
- Auditory learning strategies that use video clips to emphasize important concepts and extend learning.
- Experiential learning strategies using critical thinking exercises and flash cards.

Online learning works best with independent, self-motivated learners who can organize and structure his or her time to meet course learning needs and expectations.

Online Activities and Expectations

1. Budget your time wisely! Typically you will spend 9-12 hours per session on class activities for this online class. For a 3 credit class you are expected to:

- review the online lecture notes
- complete all assigned readings in the required text
- access and review online web resources

- submit the online test for each session

2. Online sessions will include lecture notes (supplemented with your readings in the required text), web resources, activities, and a test to be completed for each session.

3. Online quizzes, although taken at your geographical and time convenience, should be treated as open book examination experience. This means you should study prior to taking the examination and may use study and lecture material during the test. To prepare for the quiz you are encouraged to use the study outline found at the end of each chapter, review lecture and reading material, and complete all activities.

4. All online quizzes must be submitted prior to the end of the course. Please note: The online quizzes are timed! The time limit will be 30 minutes for 10 questions in each quiz. You can access the quiz only once. Therefore, once you start the quiz you must finish it! Academic honesty requires you not share test information with others.

Evaluation Methods/Learning Outcomes

Course Requirement	Percent of Total Grade	Alignment with Student Learning Outcome(s)
1. Online multiple-choice quizzes	100%	SLO 1, 2, 3, 4

The final grade entered is based on School of Nursing grading system. See Student Handbook page 22 (<https://www.son.rochester.edu/assets/pdf/studenthandbook.pdf>)

There are 26 online multiple-choice quizzes following each chapter which together constitutes 100% of final grade. (All quizzes are worth 4% of the final grade, except for the first and last quiz, which are 2% each to equal 100%.) Quiz questions correlate with the 9th edition textbook.

Extra Credit: You have the opportunity to access the Discussion Board and introduce yourself to the class. You will receive 5 extra credit points towards your lowest quiz grade. In order to receive credit, you must complete this task before attempting the first quiz.

This course is entirely online, so the only way course faculty have to contact you is through the email you used to sign up for this course. You should be checking your email at least 3-4 times per week in case course faculty are trying to contact you. This is extremely important. Please feel free to contact course faculty with any questions.

Grading System (for Undergraduate Programs)

The student's final numerical grade will be converted to a letter grade based on the following University of Rochester undergraduate student grading criteria:

A	93-100	C	73-76	"C-" is considered unsatisfactory work for undergraduate students; see Student Handbook for implications.
A-	90-92	C-	70-72
B+	87-89	D+	67-69
B	83-86	D	63-66
B-	80-82	D-	60-62
C+	77-79	E	<60	Failing grade; see Student Handbook for implications.

The Center for Lifelong Learning wants to make sure you have the time you need to do your best work in this course. It is your responsibility to reach out to course faculty to ask for more time if you need it, and to sign the contract that is sent to you and return it before the end of the semester. Failure to do so will result in zero points posted for any outstanding work and a final grade being calculated and posted.
