

87 NETTLECREEK ROAD, FAIRPORT, NY 14450
585-425-4817 OR 585-350-6095 • AMYMER11@GMAIL.COM

AMY E. MERIDETH

MSN, FNP-BC

EDUCATION

Masters of Science in Nursing. December 1998
Family Nurse Practitioner
University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Bachelor of Arts Degree in History June 1994
California State University, Stanislaus

WORK OF EXPERIENCE

May 2003-Present University of Rochester, Rochester NY
East High Clinic. 1801 E. Main Street. Rochester, NY
Supervisor Kim Urbach 585-288-1390
Nurse Practitioner

- Responsible for primary care of a high risk adolescent population, patient education, primary prevention services, acute and emergency care.
- Quality assurance responsibilities include maintaining inventory records, state-mandated reports and compliance for immunization program and laboratory services. Additionally, working with the NYSDOH on collaborative activities including writing mandated reports, protocols, education Create, distribute and analyze patient, staff, community surveys annually. Perform quarterly quality audits on provider charts. Write quality assurance reports after applicable activities and functions.
- Develop and maintain web site and social network sites for patient education and communication.

January 1999-April 2003 Cherokee Health Systems
Maynardville Primary Care. Maynardville, TN
Supervisor: Hal Moncier 865-992-3849 or
Christine Fox 719-339-5811

Nurse Practitioner

- Responsible for the primary care of patients of all ages, pediatric to geriatric, including prenatal care.
- Headed quality improvement initiative that reduced patient wait times by 38% and increased productivity by 20% in first year.
- On QI board that included staff, community members and patients.

January 2001 December 2003 Coleman Associates Consulting
Santa Fe, New Mexico
Supervisor Roger Coleman 505-995-1073
Consultant

- Trained clinical and administrative health care teams throughout the country in practice redesign to effectively utilize resources and staff to eliminate wait times, increase provider productivity and increase billing and revenues through smart scheduling, proper coding, group visits, and developing innovative, personalized strategies to maximize efficiency.
- Analyzed current processes, wrote extensive critiques and advice, trained in person and long distance through teleconferences, performed and presented at regional conferences. Facilitated small and larger group learning.

LICENSES AND AFFILIATIONS

- ANCC Board Certified Family Nurse Practitioner since March 1999
- FNP # F334020
- RN License #539205
- Member American Academy of Nurse Practitioners
- "It Wasn't Working": Women's Experiences with Short-Term Breastfeeding Mazingo, Johnie N. PhD, RN; Davis, Mitzi W. PhD, RN; Droppleman, Patricia G. PhD, RN; Merideth, Amy MSN, RN, CFNP

REFERENCES

In addition to above:

Joan Stack PNP East High Clinic 585-288-1390
Deanna Jones RN, University of Rochester 585-266-6536
Lorraine Reaves, MA East High Clinic 585-288-1390
Shellie Yussman, MD Supervising Physician 585-288-1390

Others available upon request.